If No Other Means Can Be Found to Curb Rent Profiteers Will Ask Solons to Act.

IS MAKING LEGAL SURVEY

Decides Upon Action in Response to Boosting Rentals To Unheard-of Levels

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., March 27.—Governor Cox may call a special session of the state legislature to enact laws to curb alleged rent profiteering if present legal means are found insufficient to handle the situation.

The Governor stated today that in response to the demand in various cities that something be done to curb landlords who are taking advantage of the shortage of homes by boosting rentals, he is making a legal survey and obtaining the best legal advice before announcing his course of action.

"There are unquestionably a great many abuses working great hardships on those who are forced to rent, and if the state government possesses any powers which the cities do not already have I will not hesitate to call the legislature in special session," he said. Should the legislature be called it would be limited to the subject in the Governor's call.

GERMANY HAS VAST QUANTITY OF CANNON

Allied Officials, Executing The Treaty Terms, Uncover War Materials.

CANNON ARE ABUNDANT

3500 Three-inch Guns Found in Brandenburg, Suburb Of Berlin.

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 27.—Great quantities of arms have been discovered in Germany by the Allied officers charged with supervising execution of the peace treaty, according to advices today.

In Brandenburg, and in the immediate vicinity of Berlin 3,500 three-inch field guns were found. This discovery by the Allied officers, together with other information in possession of the French authorities, is considered by the French officials to indicate that Germany is endeavoring to avoid executing the terms of the treaty.

The discovery is commented upon in connection with reports that a republic has been proclaimed in the Ruhr region. The French, it is indicated, are inclined to believe occupation of the Ruhr district by German troops of the alleged regular government would have an ultimate delay or evasion of executing the treaty terms.

Particular significance is attached here to the discovery of so many field guns in so small a part of Germany in view of the fact that the Germans, replying to the demands of the commission declared it was immaterial whether they were delivered to the allies or destroyed.

The allied commission has no knowledge of any such destruction, according to the declaration of the French premier in the chamber of deputies.

Previous belief that the little girl was the victim of a man wearing a military uniform was done away with today, when the child's mother identified the card which bound her wrists as one of her own.

The coroner stated that the child had been kicked to death, evidently, because her skull was fractured and there was an imprint of the heel of a shoe over her right temple. The child had been criminally attacked.

All business and work at Adena was at a standstill today for the funeral. Three more suspects were picked up last night. However, the authorities do not believe the right person has been apprehended, and the searching parties continue to scour the hills.

FESS ISSUES
WARNING NOTE

Washington, March 27. — An adverse vote by the Delaware legislature on the suffrage amendment might cost the republican party the presidency, the senate and the house at the November elections, Representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the national republican congressional committee, said last night in a telegram to Senator Ball at Dover.

Fess appealed to his party in Delaware to ratify the amendment and Young Mrs. Johnston Had Miserable Time Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill. — "I was very sick for some time with pains in my sides and back and I could not do my work at times the pain in my side was so bad. I would have to stay in bed for days at a time. My mother-in-law had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and recommended it to me. It cured my pains and I am now able to do all my work. You can publish my testimonial and I hope the Compound will do others the good it has done me." — Mrs. ANNA JOHNSTON, 206 E. 41st Street, Chicago, Ill.

For forty years women have been telling how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is made from native roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

not to break the record of republican states which have voted on it. He said 29 republican states of the 36 necessary to make the amendment effective have ratified it, eight unananimously, while no republican state has rejected it.

Six Democratic states have voted adversely on the amendment. Fess said 29 republican states of the 36 vote and if a republican state turned the amendment down he continued, the party would be blamed for the entire failure.

In view of the likelihood of the ratification being completed by other states, Fess said, the question was no longer one of the merits of the case, but what it was best to do in the circumstances.

Battery Repairs and Re-insulation
Better Service—Better Batteries

Battery repairs are often the result of failure to use that service which Willard has established for the car owners of America in over seventeen hundred places.

There are two distinct sides to Willard Service: One is paid service—curing battery troubles by skill and thoroughness in handling repairs—doing the job in a workmanlike fashion so that it doesn't have to be done over.

The other side of Willard service is prevention of battery trouble—and that you do not pay for. Registration of new batteries for special service, cards entitling any owner to testing and filling, good advice, informative literature and general helpfulness.

Every Willard Service Station sells the Still Better Willard Battery—a battery that was already better in material, workmanship and record of service, and was made Still Better by the invention of Threaded Rubber Insulation.

EARLY TRADING IN WASHINGTON IS REVIEWED

Story of Merchants and Volume of Business Done Contrasts Strangely With Present.

Interesting Story of Long Ago Gleaned From Old Files of Newspapers.

Believing that a review of the rise and progress of the commercial and manufacturing interests of our growing young city during the interval between 1840 and 1860 would be of interest and a comparison of the business done the following items taken from the New Era of date 1850 and the Ohio State Register of date 1860 are presented.

In 1840 there were four merchantile firms, each carrying a stock of about $3,000, consisting of dry goods, foreign and domestic; boots and shoes, hats and caps, hardware, crockery, paints, glass, dye stuffs, drugs and groceries. The names of said firms were Messrs. Yeoman & Rawlings, composed of S. P. Yeoman and Moses V. Rawlings; Reid & Sanders, composed of L. P. Reid and John Sanders; Tulley, Melvin & Company, composed of William Tulley, George Melvin and Daniel McLean; Lidy & Robinson, making a total of four commercial firms, selling an average amount of $7500 each, aggregate amount of $30,000.

There was 1 flouring mill, 1 carding machine, two blacksmith shops, one owned by Misajah Draper and one by Anthony Young; two wagon shops, one owned by Peter Wendel and one by James N. Wilson; three tailor shops, one by Richard Evans, one by Nicholas Hay and one by Clarence Parvin. There were no family groceries in 1840 and there were no manufacturing of any character, and the total business of the town in all branches of trade would not have exceeded $50,000. Prints then sold at 25c a yard, and corn brought 12½ cents delivered, oats 10 cents per bushel; good ash and hickory wood 50 cents per cord delivered.

The land owned by Daniel McLean and upon which his residence is built could have been bought for $12 per acre. The house and lot 42½ feet front, now owned by Peter Sheirman, was bought about that time for $800, and now is worth much more.

In 1850 there had been an increase in the commercial life, being now seven firms carrying stocks of about $8000. The firms were constituted as follows: Messrs. Yeoman and Ogle, composed of S. P. Yeoman and A. M. Ogle; L. P. Reid, J. C. Bell, Melvin and Wallace, composed of George Melvin and T. C. Wallace; Blodgett and Smith, composed of Nathan Blodgett and William Smith; Looft-borrow and Son, composed of Wade Looft-borrow and son Orlando; Ben F. Baughn, successor to Messrs. Samuel McElwain and Simon Stuckey; Messrs. William Burnett and Madison Jenkins. Messrs. Worley and Brown established our first rug store in town, the firm consisting of J. A. Worley and A. Brown. In 1850 there were three blacksmith shops, two wagon shops, three tailor shops, two small family groceries, one boot and shoe shop, one carding and one flour mill and business could not amount to $100,000.

In 1860 firms engaged in business were: Messrs. S. N. Yeoman and Company, consisting of S. N. Yeoman, P. J. Nitterhouse and V. M. Ogle; Wm. McElwain; Melvin and Wallace; I. C. Vandeman; Finnigan and Glaze, consisting of Thomas Finnigan and Isaac Glaze; Silcott and Seymour, consisting of A. E. Silcott and A. R. Seymour; Bing and Steinhart, composed of David Bing and Lehman Steinhart; merchant tailors, Steawrt and Willard, Robert Stewart and L. D. Willard. The aggregate business done was about $150,000. The firm of J. H. Bradley, lumber, produce, groceries, Ben Allen, Will Blakemore, J. and G. Dahl and Company, James F. Ely and John Van Pelt & Sons dealt in family groceries. John Rackenstoe, Andrew Hamilton and Addison Bybee manufactured boots and shoes; Joel S. Bereman and M. S. Segar, dealers in hard and tin ware; O. A. Allen, J. N. Cleveland and Worley and Melvin, druggist; Jessie Barnett, dealer in furniture; R. Millikan, books; D. Furtwangler, clocks and watches; J. Purcell, banker, with line of discounts amounting to over $100,000. The total business for the year 1860 amounted to at least $400,000, including the banking discounts.

In 1869 S. N. Yeoman did $53,000 and the following firms an average of $32,000: Messrs. Robinson and Silcott, J. L. Vandeman and Son; Adam Bros.; Joseph McLean and Ferguson and Company. The above were the only dry goods firms in 1869. The firms of Joseph Steinhart, Jacob Light, L. Seupenburg, R. Stewart, R. Stewart and H. Snook, manufacture and sell clothing. The millinery and mantua-making establishments of Mr. Day, Miss Wissler, Misses Wilt and LeMay, Mrs. Snook and daughters, Mrs. James Miller manufacture and sell fancy goods amounting to $20,000 per annum. Wm. Robinson and A. Hamilton, manufacture saddle and harness, amounting to $25,000 a season. Bank discounts, First National and M. Pavey amount to $350,000.

The firms of John D. Stuckey and Ely and Stinson wholesale about $200,000 worth of groceries and the firms of Greene and Greene, M. S. Segar, Dahl and Getz, Ely and Stinson and John Schum sell hard and tin ware and agricultural implements. The firms of Dahl and Getz, P. Sheirman, Frank Reife, John Cissna, Samuel Cissna for Ely and Stinson sell at retail family groceries. The firms of Messrs. Coffman, W. A. Harlow, and J. W. Cleveland sell drugs. The firms of A. Hamilton, Duffee and Sons, Jacob Bentz, Henry Wiley and J. N. Bain manufacture boots and shoes. John Mizer and Chris Haas manufacture buggies and spring wagons. Paul Hartman, Ellis Saxton and Grubbs are blacksmiths. Purcell and Nitterhouse and John Wilson sell lumber. Six eating, ice cream, billiard and other saloons do a large aggregate business. Business done in 1840 $100,000; in 1850 $180,000; in 1860 $400,000; in 1869 $1,550,000. Increase over 1840 $1,450,000. No consideration is taken of the amount of produce purchased and shipped; none being purchased for shipment during the years 1840 or 1850, but a large amount was traded during 1860, the aggregate increasing greatly by 1869. Due appreciation by the business men of Washington in building up their trade is awarded the "Power of the Press" in a system of advertising. In 1850 the New Era contained not a single advertisement of a merchant in its columns. In 1869 no less than 28 new residences and business homes were erected at a cost of no less than $60,000.

To create the rapid growth in business and development of our town and county we must thank the pioneers who endured the privations and hardships of early settlers and labored with praiseworthy zeal for the growth and improvement of their home surroundings. Such men and women as William Hays, David Persinger, Isaac Cook, Bela Latham, Jacob Rankin, Ira Yeoman, E. L. Ford, Peter VanPelt, M. Draper, R. Burnett, Joseph Mark, Wm. Marchant, John Irons, Mrs. Martin Groves, John Stuckey Sr., Stephen Tudor, Pressley Thompson, Mrs. S. F.

Yeoman, Joseph Hidy, George Hidy, Jacob Bash, Henry Parrett, Joseph Parrett, John Johnson, Chas. Holland, Charles Lauderman, Fuller Hess, Robert Anderson, Jacob Todhunter, Hamilton Rogers, Mrs. Jane McElwain, Mathias Vandeman, Mrs. Joseph Bell, Mrs. Jackson Hays, Andrew Morris, Judge McLean, Wm. McElwain and Curren Millikan must feel a pride that their judgment in selecting this county as their future home has been fully justified. For no county in the state in proportion to the area in square miles has as many rich acres under cultivation.

Owing to lack of good turnpikes leading into our town surrounding cities have built up much faster than Washington and much of the trade naturally belonging here escaped elsewhere. Trade will flow into a market for produce and we must have good roads for both the farmers and business to prosper. With the concentration of railroads facilities at this point, a net work of hard county pikes we can become in a few years the equal to the cities surrounding us on every side. Ten thousand in ten years should be our goal.

HARTMAN THEATER

(Columbus, Ohio)

"Ziegfeld Follies Week" opens at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, O., Monday night, March 29. The Follies is a national institution, as everybody knows, and the mail orders that have piled up in the Hartman box office indicate how thoroughly this institution is appreciated hereabouts. The 1913 edition of the Follies is the thirteenth annual production in a series of resplendent musical reviews, originated in America by Mr. Ziegfeld in 1907. Irving Berlin wrote the lyrics and music for the entire second act. The score of the ballet scene, in which Marilyn Miller appears, was written by Victor Herbert. Renold Wolf contributed the comedy scenes and additional lyrics were furnished by Gene Buck, with music by Dave Stamper and Victor Jacob. The new work is presented in two acts, which have been staged by Ned Wayburn, under the personal supervision of Mr. Ziegfeld. The many features of the big entertainment is a series of stage pictures created by Mr. Ben Ali Haggin, the artist. Lady Duff Gordon designed most of the costumes. More than 150 players are in the cast, including Marilyn Miller, Eddie Cantor, Bert Williams, John Steele, DeLyle Alda, Van & Schenck, George LeMaire, Johnny Dole, Ray Dooley, Eddie Dowling, Phil Dwyer, Addison Young, Doris Levant, Olive Vaughn, Helen Shea, the Fairbanks Twins, the Callahan Sisters, Emily Drange, Ruth Taylor, Marie Wallace, Helen Josimer and Nan Larned. Matinees are scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday. Mail orders should include the 10 per cent war tax and self-addressed return envelope.

On Monday night, April 5, John Golden will present at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Austin Strong's brilliant comedy, "Three Wise Fools" opening an engagement of three days with Wednesday matinee included. The story concerns three old crusty cronies, living in their past. Into this group comes a young vivacious miss, bequeathed to the three bachelors by the dying mother, who had been wooed and lost by each of the three cronies successively. Helen Menken, Claude Gillingwater, Charles Laite and others are in the cast.

INCREASED VALUES

Are you carrying sufficient insurance to cover the present value of your property?

In the past three years the value of real and personal property has nearly doubled.

Have you increased your insurance by an amount that will correspond with the advance in REPLACEMENT VALUE of your property?

Have you considered how much money you might be obliged to contribute in case of loss, because your insurance may not fully protect you under present value conditions?

In nearly all instances of renewal we are obtaining increased lines on all buildings and stocks.

Present forms of policies allow you to take insurance without notice to other companies.

It is a good business foresight to discuss the point with Glenn M. Pine, "Insurance," Telephone Automatic 5881.—Adv't.

FINAL WARNING TO GET TAGS

Final warning has been issued by the authorities for automobile owners to obtain tags before April 1st in order to avoid any difficulty after that date.

With tags obtainable from Secretary of State's office and more particularly from the office of the Fayette Auto Club in this city, there will be few persons after April first who have good excuses for not displaying the new tags.

Hundreds of Fayette auto owners have not obtained their tags but these must do so before April 1st or be liable to the fine provided in such cases. The authorities believe that ample time and sufficient warning have been given for all to show the new license tags and will act accordingly when old license tags are displayed after the dead-line date of April 1st.

CROP CONDITIONS IN CENTRAL U. S.

Weather and crop condition in Ohio and adjoining states at the present time are given in the United States Weather and Crop report for the week as follows:

"Kentucky.—Louisville: Warm weather favorable for growth of wheat pastures, and meadows, which continue to show slight improvement. Heavy rains prevented soil preparation, seeding plant-beds, and sowing oats.

"West Virginia—Parkersburg: First half rainy, last half sunshiny; favorably warm. Ground too wet for plowing. Fruit buds developing. Favorable for winter grains.

"Ohio.—Columbus: Little progress in farm work until the 22d, when more favorable weather prevailed. Wheat and grass beginning to green. Wheat looking bad in some places, but fair to good in others.

"Indiana—Indianapolis: No snow on ground. Little farm work on account of heavy rains. Wheat varies considerably, but still too early to determine amount of winter and fly damage; greening some in central south. All fruit-buds apparently in excellent condition.

"Illinois—Springfield: General rains mostly moderate, with no snow left worth somewhat improved; poor in south, but fair elsewhere. Grass starting. Too wet to plow. Roads bad.

"Michigan—Grand Rapids: Winter wheat and rye apparently in good condition."

SHOVEL ARRIVES TO OPERATE SOON

First equipment of the Andrews Asphalt Company, of Hamilton arrived in this city over the B. & O. when the steam shovel with accompanying out fit came in Saturday morning. The shovel equipment is in charge of Superintendent Sheppard.

No definite announcement has been made as to when operations will be started but as soon as possible the excavating work will be begun on some of the outlying streets.

Workmen are making progress on the laying of lead connecticut in the streets marked out for paving. The holes are being refilled and the bricks laid back so that travel may be resumed. Service Director Tracy states that earth will be allowed to settle in the excavation and that it will then be removed for a depth of eight or ten inches and cement will be substituted. The grouting will form a solid basis for replacing the bricks.

Why hens never lay half an egg

The usual method of feeding mostly grain, makes yolks but not enough whites to complete the eggs. As the hen cannot lay these half-made eggs, she absorbs them back into her system. Missouri Experiment Station tests showed that 100 lbs. of wheat, corn, oat, barley and kafir corn make (above bodily maintenance) an average of 224 yolks but only 154 whites. Based on data from the same experiments, Purina formula produce, (above bodily maintenance) as follows:

| | | |
|------------------------|--------------|---------------|
| Purina Scratch Feed | 247.49 yolks | 142.11 whites |
| Purina Chicken Chowder | 182.05 " | 282.55 " |
| Combined Ration | 429.54 yolks | 424.66 whites |

Note the perfect balance of yolks and whites and the large number of each. This combination of Purina Feeds makes the maximum number of complete eggs, eggs a hen will lay. That's why we can absolutely guarantee more eggs or money back on Purina Chicken Chowder if fed with Purina Scratch Feed as directed. You take no risk.

To The Point.

Speaking before the Iriquois Club at Chicago on Thursday night Governor James M. Cox stated that in his opinion the people were sick and tired of the league of nations discussion.

We believe that Governor Cox is exactly right and that further discussion of the peace treaty and the league of nations proposal at this time, especially in the heat of the campaign will tend to widen the breach between those opposing and those favoring the pact and postpone, if not make impossible altogether, a satisfactory agreement among the people sincerely struggling to reach a proper conclusion.

With partisan strife at its height there are certain to be bitter things said the sting of which will smart long after the campaign is closed.

No, the league of nations proposal and the peace treaty should be dropped until we pass beyond the campaign.

Governor Cox also advocated a junking of all the unwieldy war machinery, the simplification of taxation to the limit consistent with efficiency, and that the burdens of extra taxation be made less of an interference with business.

Those proposals too the people will support. Ohio's chief executive seems to have sensed correctly the vital difficulties, indicated the proper remedy and at the same time given expression to the opinions of the great majority of perplexed and annoyed business men, producers and consumers whose welfare seems to have been lost sight of by the politicians in determination to frame a campaign issue.

After all the big issue is the welfare of the people and whoever, whether it is Governor Cox or another, is chosen by the electorate, must realize that fact.

Governor Cox, at Chicago as usual, talked straight to the point.

"Hard Times."

In these times when there is so much decidedly out of the ordinary in business and governmental conditions to cause comment, furnish the basis for countless arguments and the excuse for all sorts of complaints, it is amazing as well as exasperating when some individual bases his loud complaints and criticisms on existing "hard times."

Just how any man can complain about "hard times" now is difficult to understand. The real cause of complaint is that times are too good.

Never in the history of this or any other nation was there such a demand for products of every kind, for labor and for property as there is at the present time. The man who has his own labor, his own business or his own products to sell gets "top prices"—and that top is unprecedentedly high.

The only individuals (and they are comparatively few in number) who can complain are those who have nothing to place on the market. The few individuals who are or have been trying to live on a fixed income, on invested savings, have seen their investment and their income cut to one-half by rising prices.

The people who talk about "hard times" are clear off the track. With so much to really justify comment it is amazing that anyone should dig up the old hard times complaint.

The Menace Passes

The revolution in Germany is passing. The old reactionary element has failed signally in its attempt to regain control of the German people. The danger of a reign of Bolshevism and anarchy too seems to be growing much less menacing.

While, for a time, conditions in Germany, following the seizure of power by the junkers were disturbing in the extreme and in any other nation and among any other people would, in all probability, have resulted in chaotic disorders and revolutionary warfare threatening the peace of all Europe, but the Germans are an orderly, thrifty, home-loving people not likely to surrender to violent impulses which result in destruction of their own property.

The German people have given abundant evidence, it would seem, to the world of their willingness to endure almost any governmental oppression rather than fight for freedom if that fight involves destruction of their own property.

The world is easier as a matter of course with the reinstatement of the Ebert regime in Germany and the passing of the menace of disorder no matter whether that menace was great or small but, at the same time, we may all feel assured that the outbreaks in Germany are less likely to result in Bolshevism than in any other nation.

There is no doubt that Lenine and Trotzky and their associates looked with hope for a further spread of anarchy resulting from the revolts in Germany. Those hopes were doomed to result in disappointment as will the hopes of any red radicals who expect the German people to enter upon an era of wild destruction of their own property.

POETRY FOR TODAY

ONE YEAR LESS

Cycles that turn by the touch of Eternity's hand
Bring us around, with a year one less to live;
Ah! one year less to walk God's beautiful land
And one year less Love's wonderful gift to give.

The lilacs bloom, as of old, at the touch of the sun—
Their fragrance comes, like a thought of the long ago,
Time heads us not—and her fleeting cycles run;

We alone of the marchers, are slack and slow,
Ah! one year less, as the springtime wakes again!
One less to watch the violets touch of blue;
Ah! one year less and alas! this keenest pain!
One less, one less, dear heart, to walk with you.

THE "THROWBACK"

33 LEADING CITIES AFTER MORE DAYLIGHT

Congressional Action Repealing Daylight Saving is Ignored By Many Millions.

(By Associated Press)

New York, March 27.—Daylight saving will go into effect at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning in at least 33 American cities and towns, notwithstanding the repeal of the law by Congress last Summer over President Wilson's veto, according to the National Daylight Association in a statement here today. At that time clocks will be set ahead one hour.

The cities and towns which have adopted daylight saving ordinances are as follows:

New York, New York City, Buffalo, Cohoes, Troy, Utica, Syracuse, Yonkers, Gloversville; New Jersey—Camden, Plainfield, New Brunswick, Hoboken, Jersey City; Massachusetts—Clinton, Lynn, Worcester, Marboro; Pennsylvania—Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Corry, Allentown, Harrisburg, Easton; Connecticut—Hartford, Putnam; Maine—Portland, South Portland; New Hampshire—Manchester; Michigan—Detroit, St. Joseph; Colorado—Denver; Ohio—Columbus; Delaware—Wilmington.

"We do not anticipate any confusion," said Marcus M. Marks, president of the organization which has been fighting for daylight saving. "The time adopted by New York City, for instance, will be automatically observed by all cities and towns within a radius of 50 miles or more of the metropolis. The same can be said of Philadelphia and Pittsburg. The New York Central, New York, New Haven & Hartford; Lackawanna; Reading; Boston & Maine and Maine Central railroads are preparing to operate their local trains so as to take care of the commuters in the territory affected. Cleveland last year operated on time an hour ahead of contiguous territory but there was no confusion there."

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Herman E. Price delightfully entertained the boys of Mr. Mart G. Morris' Sunday School Class of Grace M. E. Church Friday evening. The son of the home, Norman is a member of the class, and assisted his mother in extending the cordial hospitality of the home. The popular teacher and Mrs. Morris also aided in entertaining the boys.

The evening was a jolly one, with a variety of games and appetizing refreshments served.

Mrs. Lynn Smith entertained Friday with a thoroughly enjoyable birthday dinner which was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Will Craig and Mrs. Harry Backenstoe. Mrs. Harry Coventry, Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeWitt.

The dinner was in line with an established custom in this family of sisters to celebrate their birthday together. The absence of one sister, Mrs. Tom Collopy, who was unable to attend, was much regretted.

Mr. L. H. Giddard, Secretary of the Fayette Farm Bureau, goes to Greenfield Sunday to deliver an address before the Brotherhood Class of the Sunday School of the Greenfield Presbyterian Church, presenting the social work of this denomination.

This is the first of a series of lectures for which this class has arranged and are based upon "The Fourfold Task of the Presbyterian Church."

He is only a poor young man, but he has "prospects" and he has managed somehow to find favor in the eyes of the goddess, for all her society training and her wealth. So, after months of ardent pursuit, she told him, "Yes."

The poor-but-promising young man was at first in the height of ecstasy. He made firm resolves to become wealthier than her father, more socially prominent than her brothers, to give her everything her heart would desire. But—first of all, came the ring, that "no trespassers" sign of the prospective bridegroom. Prospects might win goddesses. They had no weight with jewelry firms. And the price of diamonds had gone up.

Now the young man is blest with brains and ready wit. It was these, he admitted, that had won the goddess a shrewd little person for all her beauty.

A pawnshop passed that very evening on his way home after the last good-bye put the thought into his head. A few days later, the goddess was the recipient of an oddly set diamond ring obviously not quite new, but a trinket of rare beauty nevertheless. She looked at her lover with a faint sign of inquiry.

"It is beautiful," she murmured. "Where did you get it?"

"Well," said the ready wit, "I knew you were not like other girls, and that you must have something unique. And so I have brought you a ring that has been in my family for years. In fact it was in my uncle's possession, and I have only just persuaded him that by right of succession it belongs to my affianced bride."

And the goddess, caught by the lure of "family," is proudly wearing the "heirloom" and boasting of her lover's thoughtfulness.—New York Sun.

IMMENSE CROWD OUT FOR 'OLD HOME NIGHT'

"Old Home Night," at the Presbyterian Church drew an immense audience that filled the auditorium and Sunday School room and marked the climax of the two weeks meetings in interest and impressiveness.

Dr. Faulconer delivered a wonderful message in connection with home life and its inspiration to higher ideals and closer ties in the home life was deeply felt.

The music was full of inspiration the congregational singing under the leadership of Rev. Ferguson, powerful in volume and spirit and the special music greatly enjoyed.

Rev. and Mrs. H. Framer Smith and Rev. and Mrs. Ferguson sang the quartet, their voices blending in effective harmony, and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Ferguson favored the audience with a beautiful duet.

SQUIRREL LAW
AGAIN CHANGED

The squirrel law has been changed to include an open season from September 15 until October 20, both dates inclusive. Official notice of the change made by the Legislature has been sent out over the State by A. C. Baxter, Chief of the Fish and Game Division. The dates give a slightly longer season than the former law which permitted hunting from August 20 until September 20.

The law which goes into effect next fall bears practically the same limits as did the old law which prevailed for a number of years.

Sportsmen objected to the early date of the old law. They claimed that many of the young fry squirrels at that time of the season were too young to shift for themselves. Sometimes the older squirrels were killed while the young were still in the nests.

The limit for the day's kill continues to be five big squirrels. Red squirrels may not be killed until the open season arrives and then there is no limit to this particular squirrel.

TWO GAMES ROLLED
BUT NO DECISION

High scores featured the match games for the city bowling championship Friday evening when the High School and Orman Motor Company broke even and the Bankers and Wilkin's Shorties did the same.

In the first game the Motor Company won from the High School 757 to 671 but the High men copped the second 745 to 761.

Wilkin's Shorties were first winners in their tilt with the Bankers, 721 to 695. The Bankers rolled a remarkable score in the second game and won it 735 to 692.

Paint to-day

Walk on to-morrow

Isn't it true that you would paint your floors oftener if you didn't have to keep the house apart so long waiting for the paint to dry?

Wouldn't you do it oftener if you could paint one half of the floor one day, then move the furniture over from the other half and paint that the next day?

Well, that's just what you can do with Lowe's Hard Drying Floor Paint. This fact, together with the way it stands wear and tear is the reason it is used so much on restaurant floors and ship decks.

Come in and ask for descriptive literature.

MORE DAYLIGHT PETITIONS ARE IN CIRCULATION

A petition addressed to the city council asking that action be taken to change the business hours during the period beginning in April and extending through the remainder of the spring and summer, is now being circulated in this city and widely signed by business firms and citizens.
The petition asks that the daylight saving plan be adopted here as it has been during the past two years, so that by beginning one hour earlier than otherwise, the business day be ended at a correspondingly early hour.
It is understood the petition will be presented to council at a meeting in the near future, with request for speedy action.
The petition asks for a change which is being made in a great many other Ohio cities in order that an additional hour may be had in the evening for home work or recreation.

PLAN TO EXTEND FOREIGN TRADE BY USING DISPLAYS

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., March 27.—A plan has been formulated here to expand the foreign trade of the United States through the use of Shipping Board steamships, as exhibition vessels to carry American manufactured products and visit the world's principle ports.
The idea, advanced by the foreign commerce service of the Southern Railway and Mobile & Ohio Railroads, has been presented to the Midwest-Gulf-South Atlantic Foreign Trade and Transportation Committee, representing commercial organizations of the principal Middle West and Southern States, which has been asked to lend its weight to fruition of the plan.

Answers to letters sent to more than a score of cities in the organization enthusiastically endorse the plan, according to H. G. McLean, of Louisville, assistant foreign freight traffic manager of the two railroads.
Mr. McLean says the plan is similar to that proposed by the British government which proposes a gigantic touring exhibition for British industry. The British plan, as described in a recent American consular report, would be initiated with an itinerary comprising South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada. "The duration of the tour," the reports says, "will be about 18 months and should the venture be attended with that degree of success which is anticipated for it, similar projects to other parts of the world will receive consideration. It is intended that some 500 British firms shall be invited to take part in the tour. The scheme has been sanctioned by the Government Board of Trade and the venture will be planned and carried out by the Department of Overseas Trade."

SUGAR SUBSTITUTES TO BE REGULATED

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, March 27.—The shortage of sugar during the past two years has resulted in the introduction of so many sugar substitutes that the Association of American Dairy, Food and Drug Officials will devote a part of their annual session this year to classifying them and recommending legislation to regulate their production.

The annual convention of the pure food and drug commissioners of the states and of the United States will be held at St. Louis September 28, 29 and 30. F. L. Woodsworth, Lansing, Mich., secretary of the association, is in charge of the program, and E. L. Barnhouse, Missouri, commissioner, is in charge of convention arrangements.

FIRST BASEBALL PRACTICE SUNDAY

Practice will be held providing the diamond is not water-soaked by Sunday afternoon.

Among those who will turn out will be Noon, Suttles, Doyle, Morris, Adams, Sollars, Jones and several others.

FARM NOTES

Cow Testing And Cost Account
The North Trumbull Cow Testing Association recently organized in northern Ohio is one of four associations in state that is doing cost accounting in connection with the regular cow-testing work.

The new system covers not only cost of feed but labor and overhead charges and an inventory at the beginning and close of the years of all equipment and portion of the barn used for dairy purposes. Feed grown on the farm is charged to the dairy at a fair price, and manure, calves and milk are credited to the dairy.

At the end of the year the summary is made and the profit or loss for the years is obtained. Ivan McKellip, Field Dairyman for the United States Department of Agriculture and the Ohio State University, predicts that twenty-six dairymen of Trumbull County will know a great deal more about the cost of producing milk on their own farms February 1, 1921, than they ever did before.

Agricultural Education A Profitable Investment.

Is it worth while for one who expects to become a farmer to spend much time in securing an education?

In order to take the question out of the realm of generalities and reduce it to a cold blooded dollars-and-cents basis, more than one thousand records of representative Ohio farmers were analyzed by the Department of Rural Economics of the Ohio State University to see if the education of the operator of the farm had any effect on the profits of that farm.

Nine hundred twenty-eight of these farmers had received a high school education or less. The average labor income of these men was $502 over and above all expenses and 5 percent on their investment. One hundred of the men whose farms were studied had received a college education along some other line than agriculture their labor income was $644. Twenty-seven men had received an agricultural college training, the labor incomes of these men averaged $1422.

GOVERNMENT SELLS 9,100 SEAL SKINS

Secretary of Commerce Alexander announced today that 9,100 dressed, dyed, and machined fur seal skins from the take of 1918 on the Pribilof Islands, Alaska, were sold at the public auction held in the International Fur Exchange, St. Louis, Missouri, on February 2. These skins commanded the highest prices ever paid, one lot bringing $177.00 a piece. Numerous other lots sold for over $170.00 each the average being $140.97 each, an advance of $49.63, or about 55 per cent, over the previous sale held last September. More than 600 buyers, representing 10 countries, attended the recent sale, which netted the United States $1,096,833.23.

DRY LEADERS ARE HOPEFUL OF A VICTORY

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, O., March 26.—Dry leaders late today predicted victory in the recount of votes cast in the state prohibition referendum. With the original wet majority of 479 cut to 159, and with further reductions predicted by the drys though alleged errors, prohibition forces expressed the belief that a majority of a few votes for the drys finally would be recorded.

FREE SEEDS CUT FROM AGRI BILL

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 26.—Nearly a quarter of a million dollars for free seed was cut out of the agricultural appropriation bill which was passed today by the Senate, but members said the item would be put back in conference in accordance with time honored custom.

The bill's total is $33,000,000. The Senate added an amendment which would permit the War Department to sell 50,000 tons of nitrate of soda for fertilizers.

FLETCHER SAYS ORDER DISOBEYED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 26.—Rear Admiral William B. Fletcher told a naval board of inquiry today that his orders directing the escorting of the convoy, which included transport Antilles, sunk off the French coast in October, 1917, were not obeyed by Lieutenant Commander F. N. Freeman commanding the escort.

GOTHAM VICE HUNT TAKES A NEW TURN

(By Associated Press)
New York, March 26.—New York's vice hunt being conducted by Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith took a new turn tonight when Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfield made public "information" to the effect that Mr. Smith, himself, had opened a gambling house known as the Civitas Club and had told his partners that he would "close up a lot of the poker houses around here and make them come to us."

FURNITURE DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

(By Associated Press)
Greenboro, N. C. (By Mail).—Demand for furniture throughout the country is of immense proportions and it is impossible to make the supply keep up with the demand, according to manufacturers who attended the meetings of the National Council of Furniture Associations held here. There is every reason to believe, these manufacturers say, that the demand will be increasingly great in the future. At the same time it was agreed that the lumber shortage was the most serious difficulty confronting furniture makers and no material relief is in sight at present.

Office seeking may be neither a trade nor a profession, but a disease.

BIG CARNIVAL AND MINSTRELS PLEASE CROWDS

Sophomores Score Genuine Triumph in Elaborate Affair Friday Night.

Real Art and Marked Skill Shown by Students Who Delight Hundreds.

Rivaling in its spirit, in its uniqueness, and in its bigness, any former attempt at class carnivals, the Sophomore Carnival given at the high school building Friday evening won the approval of the hundreds who enjoyed the social hour and the minstrel show. From early in the evening, as soon as the doors had been opened, young and old flocked to the scene of festivity and merriment and many were astonished at the magnitude of an affair that was strictly the work of the students. The Sophomores had put forth every efforts in their zeal to out-rival even upper classmen.

Mrs. Haldee Van Winkle Coffman was responsible for the ingenious way in which the Gymnasium had been transformed from a modern high school athletic floor to a scene in Tokio.

Miss Mary Weaver, instructor in Domestic Science, applied her best knowledge of the great American art in the tea room, where a decidedly French atmosphere, accentuated by the pretty French maids, lured the wayfarer.

Miss Louise Habegger directed the colored minstrels in their antics and the entertainment by the colored gentlemen, assisted by the white members of the troupe proved the climax of the evening.

THE CARNIVAL

Noise of the vendors as they disposed of their wares and the crowds as they surged back and forth attracted first and the gymnasium, transformation having given it a cast of Orientalism, drew its share of the money that poured from the pockets of the passers by.

Those who wished their fortunes told by the six pretty young ladies who had been selected for their prophetic qualities, in the main, stood in a steadily growing line until the minstrel called. The readers of the palm were Misses Irene Schultz, Alice Parrett, Helen Russell, Mary Elizabeth Holmes, Dorothy Kneisley, Beata Haines.

An Art Department opposite the abode of the fortune tellers came in for its share of patronage. Those in charge were Ruth Haines and Martha Gibson.

Unlimited treasures in the form of almost every small article imaginable came from the Fish Pond. A swarm of youngsters besieged the attraction.

A candy booth, with sweets made by the students of all classes, and an ice cream and soft drink counter, collected all stray change before the sightseer noticed three clowns Stanley Dray, Jessie DeLong and Byron Horney, carrying signs that invited patronage to the tea room.

THE TEA ROOM

Yellow candles shed a radiance over small tables and around the room moved twelve dainty French maids, garbed in the typical costume which added to their attractiveness. Miss Laura Brownell was a most gracious host and served in the capacity of head maid.

A color scheme of green and yellow was carried out effectively. Dainty menus showed the detail with which the affair had been planned. Daffodils in baskets on the tables blended in perfect harmony.

French pastry gave mute testimony to the skill of those behind the scenes, the cooks in the kitchen, under the direction of Miss Weaver.

Needless to say the tea room was found an attractive place all evening and even after the minstrels the room was again filled. Especially noticeable was the commendation of the mothers on the manner in which the tea room was arranged and in the faultless serving of the pretty waitresses.

Lingering over the delicacies was in fashion until the minstrels called at nine o'clock in the auditorium upstairs.

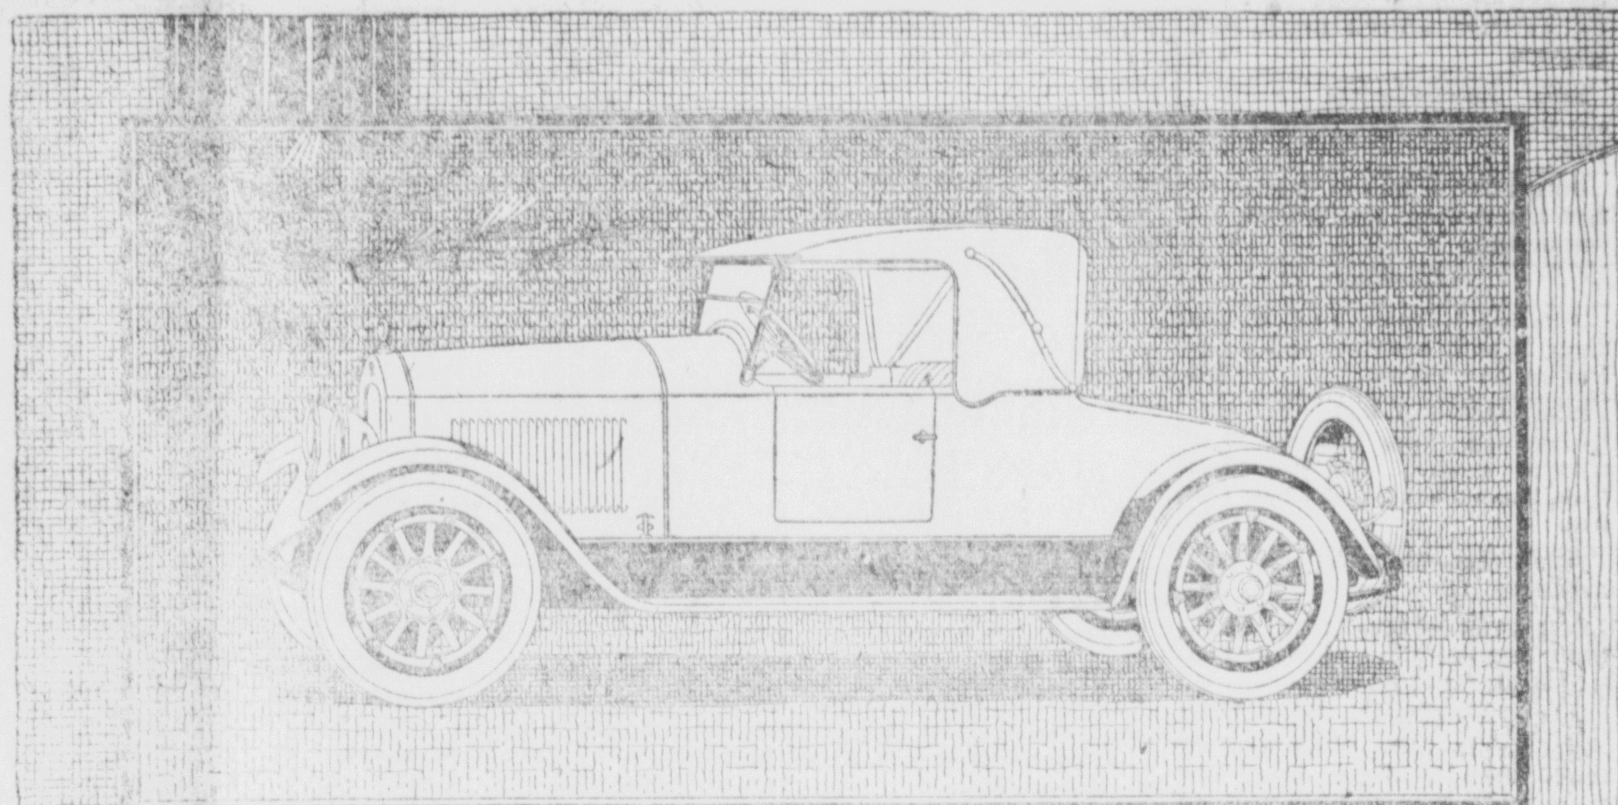

THE MINSTRELS

Coming as it did at the end of the evening and bringing out the talents of the Boy's Glee Club for the first time this year, the minstrel was complete relaxation and for over an hour delighted an audience that could hardly be accommodated in the auditorium. Every seat was taken and standing room was a prized possession even in the hallway.

Grouped on the stage, around David Craig, Jr., an imposing and perfectly composed interlocutor in dress suit, the Glee Club was the source of unlimited merriment. Eight men in white duck and blue, flanked by the colored end-men, in the height of Colorado Maduro fashion, made up the company. Those recognized beneath the grease paint were, Bernard Smith, Walter Weaver, Paul Rose, Joe Wilson, Thomas Rogers, and Leroy Thompson.

Featuring the entertainment was the dialogue work of Smith and Wilson, the solo work of Oliver Tracey and Paul Rose and the quartet, composed of Tracey, Weaver, Craig and Rothrock.

Miss Marion Whelpley was accompanist.

The ONLY Aero-EIGHT

THE world has produced great masters—geniuses all—but in the minds of men there will remain always but one Michael Angelo. And though there may be countless eight cylinder cars—all worthy contributions to the science of automotive engineering and designing—there is only one Aero-EIGHT.

An Exclusive Creation

It is distinctive, original, exclusive. There is something indefinable about it that vests it with an inherent quality of goodness, worth and ability which is peculiarly its own—which eludes imitation.

The Cole Aero-EIGHT has an air of unconcerned power—a complacency that takes for granted its mastery over every emergency and inspires confidence in its ability to reduce the extreme to the commonplace.

Its beauty of lines, its wealth of energy, its speed when desired, its comfort always, its unparalleled economy, its luxurious completeness form a combination of virtues rarely encountered in such perfect balance and harmony.

The ability of the Cole to transcend all present accomplishments by instilling a note of futurity in all that it achieves gives the Aero-EIGHT a character humanly individual.

BANQUETERS
"UNCLE JOHN"

Too Much Cannot be Said in Eulogy of the Fish and Game Organization.

Uncle John Nier Voices the Sentiment of Appreciation
For the Organization and Banquet.

Uncle John Nier, in charge, for the county commissioners, of the G. A. R. rooms at the Memorial Hall, feels that he would be remiss in his duties if he did not give public expression to the appreciation he and his comrades feel for the splendid manner in which The Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association prepared for and conducted their annual banquet on Friday, March 19th.

Through arrangement with the county commissioners, the Memorial Hall was secured by the organization for the banquet. For several days prior to the banquet there was a "young army" of men busy making preparations for the elaborate affair and on the long-to-be-remembered night of the banquet, something like a thousand members and guests gathered round the tables, partook of the good things and made a merry evening of it all.

Notwithstanding the unusual amount of preparatory work, notwithstanding the great crowd handled which taxed the capacity of the hall to the utmost, notwithstanding every working member was wrought up to high pitch of excitement before, during and after the banquet, Uncle John says, there never was any bad language used, never any ugly display of temper, no unnecessary noise and never the slightest discourtesy to the veterans or to each other. There was nothing occurred which the wives and mothers could not have heard or witnessed with pleasure and pride. Considering the great amount of work done there was only an infinitesimal breakage and that could not have been, owing to the great press, avoided.

After the banquet, the Hall was left in splendid condition, clean and orderly. What little unavoidable damage was done the members at once called attention to and expressed their desire that it be repaired at once and that they would foot the bill.

Uncle John says that he has seen a good many gatherings in Memorial Hall but never one which had more pleasant features than the big banquet. It is a joy, he says, from start to finish and its memory will always be a pleasure for the veterans in whose hall it was held.

There was not, he says, one single unpleasant feature to mar the memory of it all. The officials and the members of the organization comprise our best and most responsible men of city and county and too much in praise cannot be said for them and their banquet.

Too often gatherings are a burden and an annoyance to the veterans, but not this one.

The great good work the organization is doing and has done can well

PITTSBURGER WHO ALWAYS GIVES BRITTON
REAL BATTLE WILL TACKLE CHAMP AGAIN

Jack Perry is confident that his time has come to wrest the welter-weight crown from Jack Britton's locks. The pair meet in Canton St. Patrick's day. They'll fight twelve rounds, no decision. Jack—and his enthusiastic manager—are sure Perry will stop Britton. The Pittsburgher has given Britton some tough fights. Britton's friends aren't anticipating any sensation, however.

be realized, Uncle John says, when the time personnel of the organization as reflected in the banquet preparations and the feast itself, is realized.

The proof of the greatness of the organization is to be found conclusive in the gentlemanly behavior, courteous and thoughtful conduct exhibited and in the straightforward way the whole affair was handled from start to finish.

MARVEL MEETS
BINCKLEY HERE

A great deal of interest is attached to Promotor Bell's announcement that the next wrestling match in this city will be a finish bout between Mort Henderson, better known as the "Masked Marvel," and Cliff Binckley of Columbus, the match to be staged here April 6th, at the Armory. Henderson is the man who met Binckley here and in a fall from the platform fractured a rib which put him out of the match. Since then he has wanted to meet Binckley here, and local fans, delighted with the Masked Marvel's work, have been anxious to see him finish the bout.

Henderson was defeated by Binckley in a recent match in Springfield, and the pair will again wrestle there on March 31st, the Marvel claiming he was not given a fair show.

PRODS CIGARET
SMOKING HABIT
(By Associated Press)

Toledo, O., March 27.—The effects of the cigaret habit furnished the worst by-product of the war, Dr. M. B. William, evangelist of Chicago, told an audience here in an address before the Ministerial Union.

"Men whose minds are beclouded by cigaret smoking are not fit to attend to business," said the evangelist, who declared that the Chicago Gas Co. found 12,000 uncorrected mistakes in billing in ninety days, blame for which was placed by company officials on this cause.
